

Michigan FFA Past State Officer Alumni

State FFA degree completers can receive six credits from MSU

Michigan State University will award six general university credits to students who:

- Gained admittance to MSU
- Completed a state approved Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources Education (AFNRE) program
- Received the State FFA degree

An agreement between the Michigan Department of Education and Michigan State University created this opportunity. Credits may be applied towards a bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate program at MSU.

Who is eligible?

Beginning in 2015, high school students in Michigan who have completed a state approved AFNRE program in their schools and have received the State FFA degree.

How are credits applied?

Students need to work with their departmental advisors to apply the credits to an MSU degree or program and to determine how the credits will count.
