Due May 1

Up to 10 Scholarships available!
Application Deadline - May 1, 2019
Please type all responses on application.

Purpose

To encourage and promote the teaching of high school AFNR education as a positive and promising college major and career choice. Challenge 24 Teacher Academy and Scholarship Program is aimed at FFA members who:

1. Have a sincere desire to pursue a career as a high school Agriculture, food and natural resources educator and FFA advisor.
2. Have a sincere desire and the academic credentials to be admitted to Michigan State University, and to major in AFNR Education.
3. Have a sincere desire to develop the knowledge, skills, and dispositions expected of an AFNR Educator to meet the needs of a diverse society.

Incentives

1. As many as 10 participants will be selected to attend the 2019 Challenge 24 Teacher Academy, July 23-24, 2019 at Michigan State University.
2. Housing, meals, on-site transportation, conference materials and shirts will be provided.
3. Students who attend the Academy, and who receive admission to MSU and enroll in AFNR Education with an emphasis on teaching, will receive a scholarship.
4. Academy participants will be recognized on stage at the upcoming State FFA Convention.

General Guidelines

1. High school juniors entering their senior year may apply. High school sophomores entering their junior year may apply. A student may participate in the academy only once.
2. Must attend both days of the Academy scheduled for July 23-24, 2019 on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing, Michigan.
3. Must meet the application deadline, postmarked by May 1, 2019
4. Must include with the application an official copy of the applicant's most recent high school transcript and a wallet size or larger photograph of the applicant.
5. To receive a scholarship, the applicant must:
 - Attend both days of the academy.
 - Be admitted to Michigan State University within three years after graduating from high school.
 - Select the AFNR Education teaching major as your MSU college major.
6. Must be willing to write thank-you notes to the program and Scholarships sponsors. Names and addresses will be provided.
