

Made For Excellence (MFE)

The cornerstone conference for personal growth is better than ever.

Focused on freshmen and sophomores, MFE is designed to meet these students where they are: thinking about plans for the future, understanding themselves, and considering choices ahead. With a thoughtful mix of activities, large and small group interaction, direct instruction and personal reflection, MFE is engaging and meaningful for FFA members.

MFE Conference Objectives:

Students will...

- Students will understand that they are made for excellence, not mediocrity
- Students will learn that excellence is comprised of personal choices
- Students will discover their own talents by completing a talent assessment relating the results to their talents and describing how to utilize them
- Students will identify skills needed and desired for success and determine sources and methods to gain those skills
- Students will determine their will by assessing personal interests and explaining the components of motivation
- Students will describe success as excellence meeting opportunity
- Students will set goals for success
- Students will identify choices needed to utilize available opportunities within FFA, high school, careers, and other organizations
